No Monetary Pressure

Financial Prospects Bright for the Future.

EFFECT OF BOND PURCHASES.

The Treasury Will Be Able to Supply All Needed Demands for Legitimate Business—A Review of Business During the Past Week.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: Scarcely a week has passed since government purchases of bonds and heavy payments made the street certain that there could be no monetary pressure this fall. Now people are talking again about possible exports of gold, foreign exchange is higher, and rates for money advanced, the best commercial double-named paper selling at 5 to 7 per cent. and prime single-named at 6 to 7 per cent.

Over $20,000,000 has been absorbed, of which none has gone abroad and scarcely any to the west or south, and the question is again just what it was some weeks ago: "Will the treasury be able to get bonds enough to prevent monetary pressure?" Then there was known to be more than $20,000,000 locked up in bonds held on speculation, that resource has gone, but the additional money has been absorbed by speculation in stocks. As was said before, it is to be said now, there is money enough for all legitimate business—when speculation does not absorb it.

Many sales of stocks on foreign account have caused a little reaction, and ruggedness, but the general average of prices is still nearly fifty cents per share higher than a week ago. The wars of railroads do not cease, but on the contrary are increasing in number and importance. The exports of products are remarkably large for the season, for two weeks 40 per cent. above last year's, but the imports of merchandise are also very heavy, and the unrecorded imports of securities returned from abroad tend to turn the scale. At every western and southern center, money is in fair supply, with a demand generally good, but brisk at Milwaukee, and such at Chicago that an advance in rates is expected. At Boston, financial weather is still called cloudy, and caution in scrutinizing paper makes the rate of less consequence, for selected corporation paper sells at 4 to 4½ per cent., while most commercial loans are at 6 per cent.

The violent storm has disturbed business not a little along the sea coast, and affected purchases for the interior, but in all other respects the week has been one of satisfactory business. Nearly all interior cities report trade as active or improving and the clearings through banks outside of New York still exceed last year's by 2.7 per cent. Though the government crop report was thought slightly unfavorable, other accounts all concur in very satisfactory views, and the course of trade at interior points manifests the confidence of local dealers. But in some other branches, and notably in dry goods and clothing, evidence continually comes to light that past purchases in excess of actual consumption have left stocks on hand which hinder new operations. The trade in cottons has been fair, though much affected by the storm, while the market for woollens is inactive, as it has been for several weeks.

The weekly output of iron furnaces in blast Sept. 1 was 144,068 tons, against 145,899 Aug. 1, and 125,866 a year ago. In spite of the increase of 14.4 per cent. in production for the year, the tone of the market is strong for the best well known grades, but while such iron sells at $18 for No. 1, new makers are selling other iron claimed to be equally good at $17, and a failure to sell No. 2 southern at $15 is noticed. A significant fact is the agreement of stockholders in the Thomas Iron company to sell their works to English parties. Rails do not rise; 10,000 tons were sold during the week at $28. The American copper syndicate appears to have collapsed, and lake is quoted at $10.25 for September; secret sales here by the Rothchilds are rumored. The London strike, preventing shipments, permitted a corner in tin here, but the price has reacted to twenty-one and one-half cents, while lead is strong at four cents. Coal is dull, orders from consumers are still anxiously awaited, and the threat of higher prices, like the old cry of "wolf" has lost its power. A year ago buyers overloaded, and now they wait.

The wool market is nominally firm, but if manufacturers refuse to buy, the expected lower prices will come. The grocery trade has been much affected and sugar is also weakened by the conviction that a fall impends. Breadstuffs have been comparatively inactive; wheat is one-half cent higher, with sales for the week of only 10,000,000 bushels, and corn one-fourth cent lower, with sales of 6,500,000 bushels. Coffee has advanced another half cent, and oil two cents, but hogs and lard are lower. On the whole, speculation in products is making unusually little disturbance this year, and the large crops are therefore all the more likely to go into consumption promptly and at moderate prices.

The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days, as reported to R. G. Dun & Company, the mercantile agency, by telegraph, number, for the United States 170, and for Canada 23, or a total of 193, as compared with 201 last week, and 211 the week previous to the last. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 217, representing 190 failures in the United States, and 27 in Canada.

Collision on the Pennsylvania Railroad. WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—An incoming passenger and outgoing freight train collided about 9 o'clock last night near the tunnel, just outside of the city, on the Pennsylvania railroad. James Jamieson, of Philadelphia, the engineer of the passenger train engine, was instantly killed, and several passengers injured, one of them, Lewis S. Lemmer, of Baltimore, quite seriously. Several of the freight cars, with contents, were badly wrecked and damaged, and the track was torn up considerably.

A Lake Collision.

BROCKVILLE, Ont., Sept. 13.—The steamer Rothsay, of Kingston, and the tug Maria of Ogdensburg, N. Y., collided between here and Maitland Thursday night, and three lives were lost. The Rothsay had an excursion party on board. She was beached. The Maria sunk immediately.

THE ATLANTIC HURRICANE.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14.—Sea Isle City has fared badly from the storm. Property throughout the city, particularly on the ocean front, has been damaged almost beyond repair. There are five cottages leveled to the ground along the front. The city's new board walk and sea wall has been carried away, causing a loss of $10,000. The Sea Isle and Ocean City railroad will be impassable for many days to come. The turnpike running from the city to the mainland has been carried away, with all of its bridges.

The small craft anchored in the waters around Sea Isle are all adrift and many of them will be total wrecks. All communications are cut off, by the poles and wires being washed down. The Townsend's inlet railroad bridge has been nearly all swept away, cutting Avalon off from communication with the outside world. The new breakwater recently constructed in front of the lighthouse by the government has been badly damaged, and the light-house itself is undermined.

The Camden and Atlantic trains to and from Atlantic City are running on schedule time with the exception of an hour's delay in crossing the meadows. The water has almost subsided from the meadows between Atlantic City and the mainland and the tracks are about clear. Each incoming train brings heavy loads of passengers. The accumulation of mail matter from the surf-bound town is being rapidly disposed of, and it is hoped to have the mails soon moving regular.

Boats to the Rescue.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14.—The imprisoned cottagers and hotel guests at Beachhaven succeeded in making their escape by boat to Tuckerton. They had a rough passage across Little Egg harbor, and were drenched by the spray that dashed over them. The first boat load had the most tempestuous passage and several times narrowly escaped foundering in the trough of the sea. A number of boats were running to and from Beachhaven all day. A train load of people from Beachhaven and other points along the shore in that vicinity came up to the city.

Considerable anxiety is felt over the absence of J. E. Phara, a Mt. Holly builder, who went out sailing on the day the storm set in. Several others were with him. Since then no tidings have been heard from him or the boat and it is feared they have been lost. An unsuccessful attempt was made yesterday to get word from Barnegat city. It is feared that a large camping party on the beach has fared badly.

Heavy Loss of Life.

LEWES, Del., Sept. 14.—In addition to the loss of life previously reported, news comes of the wreck of the schooner W. O. Snow, of Taunton, Mass., from Philadelphia coal laden, with the loss of life to thirty-one. The wreck of the Snow was found between the Brandywine and Brown shoals. In the time between the sighting by Capt. Bernard, of the Argus, of the men in the rigging of the Walter F. Barber and his return, the men succumbed to the fury of the elements and fell one by one into the sea.

The Chattahoochee in the Storm.

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 14.—The steamship Chattahoochee, of the New York and Savannah line, bound for New York, has put into New Castle for coal and provisions. She had been blown out of her course by the gale and her prolonged trip exhausted her supplies.

Crops Ruined.

ONANCOCK, Va., Sept. 14.—The terrible storm did much damage on the eastern shore. Crops were ruined. Reports from the Metompin life saving station are to the effect that the beach has been badly washed and that the station is in danger of being swept away.

A Summer Resort Submerged.

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 14.—A Lewes dispatch reports that Waterloo, a summer resort on the Delaware bay, is entirely submerged, and out of twenty cottages in the place, the one belonging to Dr. Hearne, of Philadelphia, is the only one remaining.

Cardinal Gibbons' Denunciation.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 13.—Cardinal Gibbons has issued a pastoral letter on the unveiling of the statue of Bruno in Rome. He denounces it as "a deliberate dragging into public view, for the purpose of offering a brutal affront to the vicar of the Catholic church, of a character whose villainy has been hidden for three centuries in the grave."

British Brig Abandoned at Sea.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 14.—The British brig Angola, from Turk's Island for Boston, was abandoned on the 10th inst. in lat. 38.56 N., long. 71.30 W., totally dismantled. The steamer Prussian rescued the crew and landed them at Philadelphia.

London Labor Trouble

The Great Strike Approaching an End.

A COMPROMISE AFFECTED.

The Men Will Probably All Be Back at Work by Monday—Cardinal Manning's Efforts to Settle the Trouble Successful. Other Foreign Dispatches.

LONDON, Sept. 14.—At the close of business hours yesterday it was considered certain by both the dock companies and the leaders of the striking laborers that the great contest over the wage question would soon be ended, unless some unexpected hitch should occur in regard to the lightermen resuming work. The dockers were greatly aided during their struggle by the lightermen refusing to work even at advanced wages, and now that the employees of the lightermen seem inclined to withdraw the concessions which were made in the hope of inducing them to return to work, the dockers will return the favor by not resuming work unless the lightermen express themselves as satisfied.

It is thought, however, that this minor impediment to harmony will be got rid of without much trouble, and that by Monday at the latest the great docks will re-sume their wonted appearance of activity and the commerce of the world's metropolis will regain its normal proportions and channels. There is an almost unanimous agreement of opinion that the amicable and mutually creditable settlement of the trouble, now apparently secured, is entirely due to the untiring efforts and great sagacity of Cardinal Manning, who voluntarily took the part of mediator between the obstinate contending parties, and thus, but not for the first time, practically illustrated his conception of the functions of a prelate of religion—to be a public servant in the sense of the word.

The service rendered to society by the wise and efficacious counsels of the cardinal in this case are certainly inestimable. Though Burns is a man of extraordinary force of character, with remarkable command over his followers, even his control of the situation could not have lasted indefinitely, and while the success of the dock companies was only a question of time, or of the amount of money they were willing to lose in prolonging the lock-out, there is no doubt that before work would have been resumed on the old basis of wages, acts of violence would have occurred the outcome of which might have been appalling.

Russia's Menace to Germany.

BERLIN, Sept. 14.—Russia, in addition to her effort to prevent the judges in the Riga district from allowing the German language to be used in court proceedings, has taken another and more novel step in the Russianizing of the frontier provinces. She has prohibited the purchase of cattle by German traders in Russia with German money. A large trade is done across the frontier by enterprising German cattle dealers, and the exclusion of German currency from use in these transactions will so seriously hamper the traders that this branch of business is likely to be broken up entirely, or to be forced into new channels.

Servia Disbanding Her Army.

LONDON, Sept. 14.—Signs that seem to be of war have of late been so numerous that the lovers of peace are rejoiced by a token though small, of an opposite tendency. The reserve forces which the Servian government caused to be enrolled some time ago have been ordered to disband on Sept. 18. This action could hardly have been taken unless assurances had been received from Servia's neighbor and ally, that the time was not yet ripe for the Austro-Hungarian collision to occur.

Religious Riot.

SIMLA, Sept. 14.—During the celebration of a religious festival at Robtak, the Mussulmans and Hindoos became involved in religious disputes, which led to rioting. The police were compelled to interfere to stop the fighting, but before they succeeded in quelling the disorder many of the rioters were shot by the officers. The Mussulmans at Deldi, forty-two miles northwest of Robtak, are organizing to avenge insults put upon them by the Hindoos.

Excellent Wheat in France.

PARIS, Sept. 14.—The latest government reports concerning the wheat crop of France shows that 7,100,000 hectares were sown this year against 6,978,134 hectares last year. It is estimated that the yield will be 111,460,218 hectolitres, against 98,740,728 hectolitres in 1888.

Assaulted by a Lunatic.

ROME, Sept. 14.—While Prime Minister Crispi was driving yesterday, a stone thrown by a man on the roadside struck him in one of his eyes, inflicting a painful but not serious injury. The assailant was arrested, and found to be a lunatic.

A Village Destroyed.

LONDON, Sept. 14.—Advices from Zanzibar are that the native village of Kondutschi, whose inhabitants had supplied the insurgents with arms, has been destroyed by Capt. Wissmann's police.

Long Highwayman's Fruitless Hunt.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—A Colusa dispatch says that the Bartlett's California stage was robbed by one masked man near Leesville, Wednesday. The Wells-Fargo's express box was taken, but it is stated there was nothing in it.

FOUR MILE BOAT RACE.

Jake Gaudaur Defeats John Teemer in the $1,000 Contest.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 14.—John Teemer and Jake Gaudaur rowed their race for

$1,000 a side over the McKeesport course from Port Ferry to McKeesport, a distance of four miles, yesterday afternoon. Gaudaur winning in twenty-three minutes. He was not awarded the race, however, owing to Teemer putting in a claim of foul. He claims a ham, Gaudaur's trainer, fouled him at the critical stage of the race by rowing in front of him and in his water. Ham claims that he was fifty feet in front of Teemer, and did not foul him. Referee Pringle took Teemer's claim under consideration and will render a decision as to who won the race at 3 o'clock to-day. Teemer's claim of foul will not likely be sustained. About 30,000 people witnessed the race, which was started at 5:40 p. m. by Referee Pringle.

The men both took the water together, Teemer pulling thirty-three strokes and Gaudaur thirty-one. At the eighth of the mile Teemer increased his stroke to thirty-six and Gaudaur to thirty-four. Teemer kept up at the rate of thirty-six strokes for two miles, when he gave out rowing the balance of the way home at the rate of thirty strokes, while Gaudaur still kept pulling steady at the rate of thirty-four, and crossed the line a quarter of a mile ahead of Teemer in twenty-three minutes. No official time was taken at any stage of the race, it not being an official course. Teemer's brother assaulted Ham after the race, and Ham had to be escorted to the railway station under police protection.

The betting was two to one on Teemer, and McKeesport people have $25,000 on the race.

FRAUD IN FLOUR.

Serious Charge Against Western Millers Just Discovered.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 14.—There has been considerable excitement in commercial circles here over the discovery, or rather the making public of the discovery, that a great many flour millers in the west have been shipping short weight to their customers here. This sort of thing has been going on for months, but for some reasons the wholesale men neglected to make any exposure of it.

At last, however, the robberies became unbearable, and yesterday afternoon the matter began to be talked of on the street. President Poincy, of the state board of flour inspectors, was disposed to speak out on the subject, but the wholesalers were disposed to keep everything quiet.

Many of them were handling large quantities of flour from the mills which had been sending out short weight, and they appreciated the fact that their trade might be seriously damaged, for the time being at least, should the scandal get out. The Times-Democrat let the cat out of the bag, however, and as a result, little else has been talked of on the street by business men of all classes.

The shortages have been ranging all the way from one and a half pounds to four pounds per barrel. In some instances the gross weight has been short, but as a rule the fraud has been perpetrated by a falsification of the tare. Barrels have been marked as low as fifteen to nineteen pounds, which when stripped were found to weigh from nineteen to twenty-four pounds.

President Poincy said these shipments included about 10,000 barrels, and each barrel was short from one to four pounds, the average shortage being somewhere between a pound and a half and two and a half pounds.

FOUR MILLION ACRES

In Northern and Central Minnesota to Be Thrown Open to Settlement.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 14.—Maj. James Whitehead returned here last night with the intelligence that 4,000,000 acres of land in Northern and Central Minnesota is about to be opened to settlement. Commissioner Rice, Whiting and Marty got into a quarrel with the red men at Leech lake, and came pretty close to losing their lives.

Finding the Indians obstinate, they sent for Maj. Whitehead to come and assist them. The major was an Indian agent as far back as 1856, and is well acquainted with the Indians of the northwest.

The party made a success of arranging for the opening up of the following reservations: Leech Lake, Prairie Point, Cass Lake, Winnebagoish, White Oak, Pigeon Lake and Sandy Lake. Bois Forte is yet to be secured. The land is rich, regarded from an agricultural point of view, is well watered and grown with valuable forests of both pine and a variety of hard wood.

THE EVENING BULLETIN

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 14, 1889.

A REGULAR meeting of the Kentucky Millers' Association was held at Lexington Thursday, the principal discussion being about the price of flour the coming year.

The New York Sun posposes this as an excellent ticket for '92:

For President—David Bennett Hill, of New York.

For Vice President—Isaac Channing Gray, of Indiana.

Platform—We are Democrats.

HON. D. G. COLSON, late Republican candidate for State Treasurer, is now connected with a company that was organized to start a bank at Middlesborough. There is a grand rush by five or six companies to get into the new town first.

THE New York World thinks Harrison's administration ought to go out in a blaze of glory, for none in forty years has made a worse start. "A bad beginning makes a good ending," according to an old adage, and let us hope, for the good of the country, it will prove true in this case.

FORAKER'S troubles increase. General Grosvenor is praising up the Governor's opponent at every opportunity, and Congressman Ben Butterworth declines to take the stump for the party's nominee, although he "would be pleased to make a few speeches for the rest of the ticket."

The old soldiers of Brown County will hold a re-union at Georgetown on Friday Sept. 27th. The Brown County Battalion, organized lately with C. W. Boyd, of Ripley, for Colonel and Dr. J. W. Guthrie, of Aberdeen, for Quartermaster, will have charge of the meeting.

THE Republicans of Brown County met Thursday at Georgetown and nominated the following ticket: Senator, Col. John Henry; Representative, H. B. Whiteman, Auditor, John Kirkpatrick; Recorder, O. E. Bare; Commissioner, John V. Shorpe; Treasurer, John A. Tweed; Infirmary Director, V. K. Thompson.

ON the face of the returns in West Virginia last November, Goff had a majority of 110 for Governor. The Legislative Investigating Committee discovered enough fraudulent votes to wipe out Goff's majority, and give the office to Fleming, Democrat, by 212 votes. In one county non-resident negroes were voted by the dozen for Goff. In future elections West Virginia Democrats will likely keep a closer watch on their Republican opponents.

THE private library of the late Dr. Robert Morris, a prominent Mason who died at his home at Lagrange about a year ago, was disposed of at public auction Thursday at Louisville. The library proper, comprising 1,200 or 1,500 volumes, was sold for $400 to Mr. C. A. Knight, of Chicago. A lot of old coins was then sold, to the number of 600 or 700. Mr. Knight also purchased the bulk of these, for which he paid $100. The entire sale did not realize over $700 or $800.

THE Democrats of Pennsylvania want "no usurpation or centralization of power in the Federal Government; no taxation for surplus; no tariff for bounties; no trusts; tax reduction through tariff reform; no infringement of personal liberty; no discrimination against labor in legislation or administration; no misuse of public funds." Such is their declaration of principles, and there is no true Democrat in the land who is not in hearty sympathy with them.

A YEAR or so ago, the question was how to get rid of the surplus. That was under Democratic rule. A few days ago, the Chicago Tribune, a Republican paper, was candid enough to admit that "with the immense demands on the Treasury for pensions and for building a navy the Government will need to retain all its present sources of revenue, and it may be necessary to levy new taxes or enlarge the public debt by issuing more bonds." The idea of levying new taxes or of enlarging the public debt by issuing more bonds will be good news, of course, to the tax-payers of the country. What has become of that hundred-million surplus?

SOME of the Democratic papers have gotten up a silly cry that there was a startling increase in the public debt during August. The Secretary of the Treasury says there was not, and he knows as much about it, probably, as some of the small fry editors. —Maysville Republican.

The official statement for July showed an increase of over $1,000,000, but this did not cause much comment, and has not been denied by Secretary Windom, so far as we know.

The official statement for August showed an increase of over $6,000,000. Such an increase as that in time of peace caused no end of talk, and Mr. Windom has been put to juggling with the figures to explain the matter. By the way, did any Secretary of the Treasury under Cleveland ever have to explain his official statements?

The New South.

The growth of the South has been something phenomenal in the industrial and agricultural history of the country. In the past three years official statistics show that the total value of her agricultural products reached upwards of $2,500,000,000. In that time the cotton crop amounted to about 21,500,000 bales, the corn crop reached the enormous figures of 1,500,000,000 bushels, the wheat to 150,000,000 bushels and the oats to 240,000,000 bushels.

The assessed value of property is $175,000,000 greater now than it was last year, Texas showing an increase of $25,000,000, Mississippi, $16,000,000, Tennessee, $10,000,000, and Alabama, $12,000,000. Since 1880, the assessed value of property has increased over $1,300,000,000.

The Baltimore Manufacturers' Record, from which these figures are taken, reports the organization of 11,000 new industrial enterprises in the past three and a half years, "covering every line of manufacturing, from making pins to building locomotives."

The Record adds: "The railroad mileage of the South has been increased by the addition of over 20,000 miles since 1879. Since that year, over $800,000,000 has been spent in building new roads and improving old ones."

"In 1880, the South made 397,301 tons of pig iron; 1888, over 1,100,000, and in 1889 it will produce about 1,500,000 or 1,600,000 tons.

"In 1880, 6,048,571 tons of coal were mined in the South; in 1888, the output was 18,000,000 tons, and in 1889 it will probably be not far from 23,000,000 tons.

"Cotton mills have increased from 161, with 14,323 looms and 667,854 spindles, in 1880, to 355 mills, with 45,000 looms and 2,035,000 spindles, while many new mills are under construction and many old ones are being enlarged.

"In 1880, there were forty cotton-seed oil mills in the South, with a capital of $3,500,000. Now there are 263, representing an investment of over $20,000,000.

"The value of the South's live stock is now about $575,000,000, while in 1879 it was $391,400,000.

"The production of grain rose from 431,074,630 bushels, in 1880, to 632,666,000 bushels in 1888, and this year will probably show over 680,000,000 bushels, an increase of nearly 250,000,000 bushels."

C. L. DUDLEY has been appointed Receiver to take charge of the Fleming Gazette office.

THE appointment of Samuel L. Blaine to a Storekeepership by Collector Goodloe has no more bearing upon Maysville than if it had been made by a Collector in California. Mr. Blaine will be located at Lexington, and his appointment will not reduce the number of places to be filled in this city. —Maysville Republican.

That may be true, but Mr. Blaine is credited to Maysville, although he has resided at Youngstown, O., for years. If Maysville was entitled to another Storekeepership, why wasn't the appointment given to one of the good Republicans of this city?

The Railway World.

The Kentucky Central pay-car was here this morning on its monthly trip.

Two of the C. and O.'s new engines passed east over the road yesterday.

George S. Sipp has been appointed Car Accountant of the C. and O., with headquarters at Cincinnati.

The Pullman Car Works have commenced on an order from the Chesapeake and Ohio for 500 cars of 60,000 pounds capacity.

The K. C. people have bought a small lot of ground on the east side of Bridge street and north of the freight depot from Mr. R. A. Cochran. More room was needed at the freight yards, and two new side tracks will be put down for use by the K. C. and C. and O.

The Wagner Palace Car Company, for the quarter ending June 30 last, reports to the Railroad Commissioners, including all the business of the company in sixteen States and Canada, gross earnings, $704,796; gross expenses paid, $545,418. The operating cost was 77.3 per cent.

Serious Men.

[J. M. T. in Bourbon News.]

The world is under obligations to serious men. Jesus was a serious man. John the Baptist, Paul, Jerome, Luther, Calvin, Wesley and Campbell were serious men. Men conscious of their own sins, and men trying to lift the burden of sin off the world are necessarily serious. There is a hackneyed idea expressed in various forms that seriousness is an indication of treachery. The jolliest fellow in all Kentucky warded the suspicion of his villainy by continual jest. "Honest Dick" Tate was the embodiment of the free and easy, cheerful fellow. My observation is that more gamblers, seducers, drunkards and men of evil tendencies are of the Dick Tate than of the choleric type, and that there is more hypocrisy hidden under the free and easy manner, than under a sedate countenance. So unchallenged has the idea become that even preachers have dickered to this popular notion, and in some instances given themselves to frivolity, which, in their closets, they must have despised themselves for. Earnest men and serious men is the demand of God and the need of society to-day.

At the Church of the Nativity the services to-morrow will be as follows: Holy Communion at 9 a. m.; Sunday school at 10 a. m.; morning prayer and sermon at 11 o'clock. On the first Sunday in the month the Holy Communion will be after the 11 o'clock services. Evening services at present at 7:30 o'clock.

Minnesota wheat crop for this year is 50,000,000 bushels greater than ever before, and Illinois 73,000,000 short of last year.

The L. and N.'s gross earnings the first week of September show an increase of $36,410 over those for the corresponding period last year.

Kentucky STOCK FARM

(BLUE GRASS)

FOR SALE OR LEASE.

I will sell, or lease for a term of years, MEL-ROSE STOCK FARM, the home of the late W. T. Dudley, situated within one mile of Frankfort, Ky., on the Lexington turnpike, and L. and N. Railroad, containing 265 acres, which may be divided into two tracts, one containing 105 acres, with the residence and improvements, and the other 160 acres with one tenement house. The soil is rich, producing large yields of tobacco, wheat, corn, etc., and there are five never-failing springs of limestone water on the place. The residence is of brick, with ten rooms, located on a commanding eminence and surrounded by forest trees. Improvements include two large stables, two large tobacco barns and other farm buildings all in perfect repair, and a fine orchard of best fruits, now in full bearing. An excellent half-mile track may be made on the place. This farm has all the requisites for a first-class stock farm, offering special advantages for raising and training horses, the greater part of it being now well set in blue grass. Will take $20,000 for the whole place, one-quarter cash, balance in one, two and three years, with interest, or will lease for five years at $2,000 per year. For particulars address FRANK CHINN, Attorney, Frankfort, Ky. s3dm MARY J. DUDLEY, Executrix.

KENTUCKY CONFERENCE.

Proceedings of the Annual Meeting
Now in Session at Paris.

The annual meeting of the Kentucky Conference of the M. E. Church, South, is still in session at Paris.

Thursday the characters of G. B. Poage, J. C. Minor, G. N. Buffington, supernumeraries, were passed, and they were referred to the Committee on Conference Relations for Superannuated Relations. Characters of R. Deering, B. F. Sedwick, S. S. Deering, T. N. Ralston and D. Welburn were passed and they were referred to the Committee on Conference Relation for Superannuated Relation.

The characters of H. M. Swiney and J. R. Peeples were passed. Character of W. D. Power was passed and he was referred to Committee on Conference Relations for Superannuated Relations. Characters of the Presiding Elders Dr. H. P. Walker, E. L. Southgate, W. F. Vaughn, A. Redd, J. Rand and J. A. Sawyer were also passed.

W. A. Penn, E. G. B. Mann, W. J. Doran and A. P. Jones were called, their characters passed and they were advanced to class of fourth year.

J. D. Redd and C. F. Oney were elected to Elder's Order, their examinations having been approved.

Elza Richards and Thomas B. Demarre, from the Maysville district, applied for admission. Demarre was received and will be sent to Japan as a missionary. Richards' examination was approved, but on further investigation he was refused admission.

William A. Cooper comes to the conference from the Salvation Army; one candidate for admission comes from the Presbyterian Church.

Some of the ministers have a "hard road to travel." The minister who had charge of the Frenchburg church last year was promised $85 for his year's work, and only received $57.20.

The church at Lexington pays the highest price of any in the conference for support of its preacher. He receives $1,650 a year.

The pulpits of all the churches at Paris will be filled to-morrow by members of the conference.

Here and There.

Master Allen Dodson left on the F. F. V. last night for Rockville, Md., to resume his studies at the Rockville Academy.

Miss Hattie Hansford, of Harrodsburg, returned home this morning after spending several weeks with Miss Anna C. Frazee.

The Turf, Field and Farm.

Horace Miller, of Paris, sold 1,300 bushels of seed rye at 65 cents a bushel.

Don Pizarro, the pacer, made another attempt at Cincinnati yesterday to beat 2:14, but failed. He went the mile in 2:16.

Hutchison & Lawwill, of Ellsberry, O., sold a hog-head of tobacco Thursday at the Walker House, Cincinnati, for $312.55.

A hog-head of tobacco was sold at Cincinnati one day this week at $29 a hundred, the highest price of the season in that city.

At the Christian Church, Dr. Thayer will speak to-morrow morning on "The Divinity of Jesus"; in the evening at 7:30, on the connection between "Doing and Knowing." The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor will meet at 6:30 p. m., to which all young people are cordially invited.

THE ONE PRICE SYSTEM

Ever since the beginning of MINER'S SHOE STORE. Over fifty years ago, the One Price principle has been strictly adhered to. It is one of the bright features of our business. That it is the fairest, squarest and most satisfactory in all respects, every buyer will admit.

Another thing in this connection: Where one price is the rule, of necessity it means the very lowest cash price; the two are inseparably connected. Think this over and see if the statement is not correct. As a measure of good faith, we mark everything in plain figures, that "He who runs may read."

A Deserved Tribute.

Liberal attention is being given to the handsome display of fine clothing and fine goods at Hechinger & Co.'s Odd-fellows' Hall Clothing House. In their ready-made clothing department, which is extraordinarily large and comprehensive, they are showing some beautiful lines in tailor-made suits, the materials in them being the latest effects in worsteds, chevots, Scotchies and cassimeres, many of them made by the best of French and German manufacturers. It is also admitted that their stock of boys', youths' and children's suits is the most extensive that has ever been brought to Maysville. The bewildering variety in fine piece goods in their tailoring department evinces the taste of artists, and the number of orders already taken for custom suits indicates that this line is appreciated by good dressers. That their entire stock consists of the most desirable goods and at the lowest prices in the land is well proved by the facts of their very wide sales to near-by and far-off people, who keep themselves well posted as to styles and values. No shrewd, wide awake person should fail to look through Hechinger & Co.'s stock before buying fall and winter clothing.

JUDGE ASHBURN, of Batavia, O., has been nominated for Senator by the Democrats of Brown and Clermont counties. The nomination is equivalent to an election, as the district is solidly Democratic.

REV. I. S. McELROY, of Mt. Sterling, is still assisting Rev. W. T. Spears in the protracted meeting at Maysville. His sermons are pronounced clear, scriptural and practical. He preached last night to a large congregation from Isaiah 54: 22, "Look unto me and be ye saved." Thus far two have united with the church—Mrs. Condit Dougherty and Mr. Carl Wheeler.

THE latest news from the Conference at Paris is that Rev. D. A. Beardsley, late pastor of the M. E. Church, South, of this city, has been tendered the appointment at Richmond. Mr. Beardsley has been suffering with ear and throat troubles the past six months, however, and his physicians have advised a rest. He will be allowed to take supernumerary relations in connection with the church at Lexington. This will permit him to work wherever and whenever he pleases. The indications now are that Rev. Harry Henderson, of Eminence, Ky., or Rev. Dr. Boland, of Alabama, will be the next pastor of the church in this city.

IN noticing the marriage of Miss May Morgain to Mr. J. Lewis Patton, the Covington Commonwealth says: "The lovely bride has frequently been the guest of the bridesmaids who officiated at the sacred nuptials, viz: Misses Tillie Ranson and Jane Wise, of our city. To perfect the 'charm of three,' Miss Belle Davis Paister, of Maysville (who has also visited Covington), completed the circle. Odd numbers, it seems, must be the fortunate selection, and that is why so frequently the maid of honor not only holds the conspicuous place and is expected to vie even with the bride in toilet, but she frequently makes the correct number for luck. The wedding was a quiet affair, owing to the death of the bride's father. Her bridal robes were very elegant, and the fair maidens wore the sweetest and simplest of gowns—white grenadine."

Miss Etta Robbins.

The Criminal Career of a Seventeen-Year-Old Girl.

FOUR TIMES A HORSE THIEF.

Arrested and Locked Up in Jail, She Manages to Escape and Travels Forty Miles at Night—Being Closely Pursued She Swims a Mile in a Raging River but is Finally Captured and Returned to Jail Only to Escape the Second Time.

WINFIELD, W. Va., Sept. 14.—Four times a horse thief, twice a jail breaker: that tells the most important events in the sensational life of 17-year-old Etta Robbins. Incidentally she has traveled scores of miles at night, dared wild beasts, slept in caves in the earth and swam a mile in a raging river to escape pursuers.

Etta Robbins was born near Marietta, O., and came to this county two years ago to visit two of her brothers who live in this county. She was then as now, a pretty round-cheeked, brown-eyed girl, full of life and a favorite with all who knew her. She is an animated picture of innocence, and apparently has not the slightest idea of how wicked the world is. She uses good language, dresses in perfect taste, is virtuous and was never known to tell a lie. She is at the same time a stranger to fear and is as full of ingenuity as Edison is of ideas.

Six months ago she was visiting her brother, who resides on what is known as Five and Twenty mile creek, a small stream emptying into the Kanawha river, six miles from this place. Etta stopped at the house of Thomas Hamby on whose farm Robbins is employed. One morning Etta was missing, as was also a fine horse belonging to Nathan McCoy, a near-by farmer. It was supposed Etta had grown homesick and returned to her parents. Armed men traced the stolen horse forty miles across the wildest country to Salt creek, an insignificant stream emptying into the Ohio river near Gallipolis.

The pursuers were dumbfounded to find the horse in the girl's possession. While debating the affair the girl, who was still on the animal's back, dashed into the river and attempted to swim to the Ohio shore but was caught. She said she took the horse about 9 o'clock at night, and rode him the whole forty miles through a strange country before daylight. Then she camped in the woods a day and night and was caught just as she was leaving the state. She was placed in the lock-up here, but during the night crawled out through the chimney, and returned to Hamby's. Mr. McCoy decided the girl was too young and innocent to be a premeditated horse thief, and declined to prosecute.

A few weeks later a fine horse belonging to another farmer of the neighborhood, named Smith, was missing at the time a great flood was in the Kanawha and the back waters filled all the creeks for miles. The bottoms were seas of water. The horse was tracked to the edge of the back water at the foot of the hills, then all trace was lost. Next day it was discovered on the opposite side of the water several miles below. The third day the horse and Etta Robbins were found hidden in a dark recess in a forbidding hollow. The girl had swam the flood a mile on the horse's back, then rode it in the edge of the water several miles further. She had slept out every night, living on what she could steal.

Again her youth protected her and she returned to her brother's home. Two months later she stole a horse from Lewis Losley. She was pursued and captured at Greenwood, on the Ohio river, and returned to the Putnam county jail. She remained in jail a few weeks and by her ingratiating disposition, good looks and good conduct worked her way into the confidence of Jailer Melton, who allowed her many privileges to his cost. About three weeks ago, the jailer going up to take her breakfast discovered she had very cleverly cut her way out. Further investigation revealed the fact that she had come down into the jailer's rooms, stolen a suit of clothes, took the stable key and decamped with a fine horse belonging to Dr. Carpenter, which was in possession of the jailer.

Pursuing parties and the Eureka detectives, of which Alf W. Burnett, is chief, raided the surrounding counties for ten days, but failed to find a clew. She was at last caught by a farmer, who lived a few miles from her old haunts. In her trip she had wandered from this city into Kanawha county, then into Lincoln county, and getting lost had given the horse rein which brought her back to Putnam.

On her trips she has laid out at nights in the ditches and hollows, infested with catamounts, panthers and other wild animals, and lived on green corn, berries and what she could steal.

She does not seem to care for the value of the horses, but appears to steal them for the love of a venture.

There is a great deal of sympathy expressed for her by some of the leading citizens and a strong fight will be made in her defense at the circuit court which convenes on Sept. 23, 1899.

Two Weeks More Selecting Jurymen.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Over one-half of the peremptory challenges of the defense in the Cronin case are now gone. Five were used yesterday, fifty one of the one hundred challenges credited to the prisoners have been cancelled. At this rate of progress a jury ought to be secured within two weeks. Pearson is still held as a possible juror, but it is said that he will soon be dismissed by the state. Real Estate Agent Culver is another possible juror. He has been passed by both sides. He is considered good enough by the state.

A. E. Tousealin, of Chicago, Ill., president of the Chicago, Burlington and Northern railroad, died at his summer residence here Thursday evening. He had been out of health for some time. Hemorrhage of the lungs set in and he died about 11:30 p. m.

WASHINGTON DISPATCHES.

Major Warner Will Probably Succeed Tanner—Other News.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—The arrival in this city yesterday afternoon of Maj. Warner, of Missouri, past commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, in response to a request from Secretary Noble is generally believed to mean his appointment to the position of commissioner of pensions. Other prominent G. A. R. men are mentioned for the position, among them Past Grand Commanders Fairchild and Rea, but Warner stock seems to be above all others.

Maj. Warner had a long conference with Secretary Noble at the interior department, presumably about the position that most people think has been offered to him, but which some think he will not accept, unless at a great sacrifice of business income and prospects.

An intimate friend of the president's said that Maj. Warner had been tendered the position, but that the president had no positive information that it would be accepted, and that there were some doubts whether Warner would accept as it would necessitate the abandoning of a lucrative position he now holds as solicitor for the Missouri Pacific railway, worth $10,000 to $15,000 a year, for the commissionership, worth a salary of but $5,000 a year.

Congressman William Wade, of Missouri, who was associated with Maj. Warner during his two terms in congress, said that he had doubt whether Maj. Warner would accept the position.

Assistant Secretary Bussey, who has been harshly criticised by G. A. R. men as the primary source of all of Mr. Tanner's trouble, and who, it has been reported, is likely to be removed through G. A. R. influence, is apparently but little disturbed over the situation growing out of Mr. Tanner's retirement. He insists that in running counter to some of the official acts of the commissioner he has been actuated by no feeling of personal ill-will toward Mr. Tanner, and feels confident that influential G. A. R. comrades, men who thoroughly comprehend the situation and the circumstances that led to the friction between the departmental executive officers and the head of the pension bureau will sustain him in what he has done.

Senator Sherman Serenaded.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—The Ohio State Republican association serenaded Senator Sherman at his residence here last night. A large and enthusiastic crowd of Ohioans and citizens, numbering perhaps 2,500, gathered in front of the senator's home. After an introduction by Congressman Grosvenor, who, in behalf of his friends congratulated the senator on his safe return from Europe, Senator Sherman standing on his front door steps, made a stirring speech.

Presidential Appointments.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—The president late yesterday afternoon made the following appointments: George C. McKee of Jackson, Miss., receiver of public moneys, at Jackson, Miss.; Horace R. Williams, of Missouri, receiver of public moneys at Springfield, Mo.; Benjamin H. Miller, of Maryland, to be an Indian inspector.

Senator Vorhees Ill.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Senator Vorhees, who had a bad chill yesterday is much better to-day. No alarm whatever is felt about his condition, and he hopes to be out in a few days.

Mines Flooded.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Sept. 14.—The heavy rains of the past few days have caused additional damage to No. 5 mine of the Delaware and Hudson Canal company, at Plymouth, where the great cave-in occurred. Water is running in to the newly made cave holes, and it is finding its way into the mine. It is reported that the Bennett vein is also flooded, and there is great danger that other openings adjoining will also be considerably damaged.

Prospects of Bloodshed.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 14.—The Picayune Meridian, Miss., special says: Reports from Choctaw county, Ala., are to the effect that the race feeling there is somewhat strained. White men were in Meridian yesterday to buy guns to prepare for the threatened troubles, information concerning them through what they consider reliable sources.

Dropped Dead After Praying.

TORONTO, Ont., Sept. 14.—William Gooderham, the millionaire philanthropist and temperance advocate died suddenly Thursday evening of heart disease. He had just finished offering prayer at the home for fallen women, and was announcing a hymn when he fell back gasping and died in a few moments.

Sail Boat Capsized.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 14.—By the capsizing of a sail boat in the harbor yesterday, Philip A. Sparrow, a locomotive engineer, residing at No. 1714 Hanover street, was drowned.
